GPs keep up fight for walk-in clinic rethink

HAVERHILL patients are being urged to support their local doctors and demand a rethink on plans for a new walk-in clinic.

Some GPs claim the £800,000 proposed for a new 24-hour, seven-day-a-week health care clinic – set to open in the town later this year – could be better spent on expanding the existing practices.

Last year, more than 10,000 people in the town signed a petition against proposed cuts of £300,000 to doctors' budgets over the next five years. They are now being asked to sign another petition calling on the Government to reconsider the so-called "Darzi" clinics.

BY Jo Deeks

Ann Sissons, practice manager at the Christmas Maltings surgery, said every local surgery had a copy of the petition and she urged patients to sign it before the June 12 deadline.

Mrs Sissons said: "Diagnostic and secondary care would be fantastic, but not at the expense of existing surgeries."

"This new clinic has to have registered patients and is expected to have 6,000 within three years. So where are they going to come from when the town has already got extra capacity? Everyone is worried about this. If the Stourview surgery was to lose 1,000 or 2,000 patients it would only have 1,000 left and it would not be able to carry on."

"If you start whittling away 6,000 patients from existing practices it could have huge consequences. What is the point of creating this new GP-lead clinic if it is going to be taking patients from existing surgeries and threatening their viability?"

"When you take away £300,000, then create a new GP-lead clinic, it does not make any sense. They have already had a 10,000-signature petition from the town on a similar vein – super services are fine if you leave existing GPs alone."

TOGAS and laurel wreaths replaced school uniforms as primary school pupils dressed the part for a Greek Day. Both pupils and staff joined in the event, which linked into studies of ancient Greece at Couplands Primary School in Haverhill.

The youngsters learned about Greek customs, enjoyed some Greek food at lunchtime and took part in games, including their own version of chariot racing in the afternoon.

Guild takes a stroll to help hospice fund

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

ENERGETIC members of Haverhill Townswomen's Guild have given a big boost to our Hospice at Home Appeal this week by handing over £648 from a recent sponsored walk.

The women who took part in the annual Hospice Stroll in Haverhill's East Town Park were Phyl Mynott, Mary Belenger, Pauline Griggs, Rene Hampson, Beryl Sanders and Peggy Miles.

Ian Norris, fundraiser for St Nicholas Hospice in Bury St Edmunds, attended the Guild meeting on Tuesday to receive the cash from the group.

The cash will go to the Weekly News St Nicholas Hospice at Home Appeal, which last week passed the £10,000 mark, putting it well on the way towards the £40,000 target to pay for patients in the Haverhill area to receive hospice services in their own homes rather than having to travel to Bury St Edmunds.

Mr Norris thanked the Townswomen's Guild walkers for their efforts as well as other members of the group who served refreshments to those taking part.

He said: "Thank you all for the support we receive from the Townswomen's Guild in giving us your money and your time, it really does make a difference to us at the Hospice."

"We do not exist unless people like you help us and I want to say a really big thank you."

Town Mayor Les Ager handed over the £1,700 cheque raised by his Mayor's Charity Dance at Haverhill Town to Mr Norris and said it was such a success he hopes to organise another one.

June looks like being a busy month for supporters of the Hospice at Home Appeal.

There will be a charity dance by 60s group The Fortunes at Wickhambrook Memorial Social Club on Friday, June 13, organised by Wickhambrook fundraisers Roz Clarry, Jan King, Lyn Newell and Marise Morling, who have already donated £1,100 from their fundraising activities.

Tickets are £12 each, available by ringing (01440) 820757, 820155 or 820481.

Rock fans can still get tickets for the charity gig by Umbrella Assassins and other local bands at Haverhill Arts Centre on Saturday, June 21. Tickets are £5, available on (01440) 714140.

Golfers will be doing their bit at the annual Haverhill Charity Golf Classic at Haverhill Golf Club on Saturday, June 28. To enter a team or for more information contact Chris Brigs on (01440) 703769.

Don't forget to let us help publicise your events to help them raise even more money for the appeal, on (01440) 703891 or e-mail editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

How can you help?

WE CANNOT reach our target without your help - so the Weekly News wants to hear from anyone who is organising fundraising discos, barbecues, dances or other events to boost the hospice appeal.

Tell us what you are planning and we will help publicise your event to make sure it is a success and raises as much money as possible. If you already have an event organised, why not pledge all or part of the proceeds to the appeal and benefit from the extra publicity to help a really good cause.

A special bank account has been set up at Barclay's Bank. Cash or cheques can be paid in directly to the St Nicholas Hospice at Home Appeal, sort code 201612, account number 80981842.

An online donations page has also been created at www.justgiving.com/haverhillweeklynews, which also gives details of how to donate by text, and you can donate by phone on (01284) 715582, at the hospice shop in High Street, Haverhill, or the Weekly News office in Queen Street, Haverhill.

Man who stopped to help is injured

A MAN was assaulted in Haverhill after intervening in an argument between another man and a woman.

The victim was threatened by a male offender and scratched across the face while in Manor Road at around 9.30pm on Tuesday, May 20, as he walked towards Millfields Way.

As he approached the underpass near Westfield Primary School, he heard the offender arguing with a woman. The victim called out in concern and the woman ran off towards the Birds estate.

The offender then assaulted the victim, before running off in the same direction.

The offender is described as white, 6ft tall, of average build, in his mid 20s with stubble and a deep voice. He was wearing a dark blue or black hooded top.

Police want to speak to any witnesses to this assault and the female, who is described as of slight build with shoulder-length blonde hair.

Calls in relation to this incident should be made to Pc Carl Brandwood at Haverhill Police on (01284) 774100 or Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.

Vet pair expand to new £1m site

ALL the latest animal care technology will be available to nurse beloved pets back to health when a new veterinary surgery opens its doors in Haverhill.

Work began on the £1 million purpose-built facility in February at the Homefield Road site, just off the town's by-pass. It's on track to be completed by September.

The surgery will be an extension of the Hawkedon Veterinary practice, set up 10 years ago by Sally Rackham and husband Richard Frost. The existing practice provides equine and small animal care and the new surgery will aim to provide the same high-quality care to a larger client base.

Computerised records of all animals will be kept at both surgeries so that patients can visit which ever is most convenient.

The 5,000sq ft building was designed by the couple. It will have two operating theatres, separate cat and dog kennels, laboratories, ultrasound and digital X-ray equipment.

An initial staff of 12 will include three experienced vets and nursing staff, with a vet on-call 24-hours a day to provide emergency services.

Ms Rackham said: "I am very excited about this new building. We have put a lot of thought into the design to give the highest standard of veterinary care."

"We have had our eye on Haverhill for a long time, but it has been really difficult to find enough land for the size of building we wanted, with plenty of parking space."

"We have a lot of customers already in the Haverhill area and also around Saffron Walden, and the new surgery will be much more accessible for them."

She added: "It will be equipped to the highest standard, we have facilities for staff to stay when patients need continuous overnight care."

"Haverhill is a dynamic, growth town and it needs more facilities like this."

The surgery will start building up its client list from August, but enquiries can be made now on (01284) 789428 or visit www.hawkedonvets.com

New hope for lost rail link

CAMPAIGNERS for a rail link in Haverhill have called a public meeting following fresh hopes that new links could be provided in towns with a population of more than 22,000.

The Cambridge-Sudbury Rail Renewal Association will meet at Haverhill Arts Centre on Saturday, June 7, at 2pm to discuss the issue.

The association has been campaigning for more than a decade to get back the rail link it lost in the Beeching cuts of the 1960s. It has received strong support from Haverhill residents, particularly those concerned about congestion and accidents on the A1307 road between Haverhill and Cambridge.

The latest move by the group follows news that a review into the possibility of rail links being provided in larger towns would be carried out by the Association of Train Operating Companies.

Anyone interested in the issue can attend the meeting, contact association secretary David Edwards on (01376) 323206 or visit the website www.csrra.co.uk

GPs' petition plea

Suffolk Local Medical Committee (LMC) is encouraging all GPs in and around Haverhill to take part in the British Medical Association's "Support Your Local GP Practice" campaign and sign the petition.

It calls on the Government to recognise the value of the service provided by GPs and to reconsider its plans to introduce more commercial companies into general practice and the creation of large, "impersonal" polyclinics, regardless of need.

The petitions will be presented to Prime Minister Gordon Brown on June 12, just before the NHS celebrates its 60th birthday.

Call for views on town's revamp

A NEW look is being planned for Haverhill's town centre and local businesses are invited to have their say.

As work progresses on the new cinema complex, leading to the revamped Jubilee Walk, plans have been drawn up to improve the appearance of the rest of the town centre.

Shops and businesses are being asked for their ideas on the look of the streets and spaces as part of a consultation exercise being carried out by St Edmundsbury Borough Council.

Delivering a quality environment, in both design and materials, is a key component of the Haverhill town centre Masterplan.

The Haverhill Public Realm Design Framework provides guidance for enhancing streets and spaces in the town centre with elements such as street furniture, lighting, signs and materials.

It has now been released for local consultation and, when finalised, will provide a guide for further investment in the town centre.

The consultation runs for four weeks until Friday, June 13.

The draft document can be found at the borough council's website, www.stedmundsbury.gov.uk

Police seek help to trace man on bail

BY Jo Deeks

Email:
editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

ESSEX police are appealing for help to track down a motorcyclist, with connections in Haverhill, who is wanted for a number of motoring offences.

Kevin Snoad was arrested in May 2007 at a petrol station in Sible Hedingham after originally failing to stop for police on the A131 near Braintree. Officers from the force's air support unit helped their colleagues on the ground stop the 35-year-old man, whose last address was in Haverhill.

He was later released on police bail pending further enquiries, but has failed to return and keep his appointment.

Pc Simon French, investigating officer, said:

WANTED
... Kevin Snoad was released on bail over a number of traffic offences but has failed to return to speak with police.

CP.

"He was due to see me last summer. My colleagues and I have endeavoured to locate him but he is giving us the run-around.

"He was last in Haverhill but could have moved to another part of Suffolk. As a result, we're hoping residents and motorists who know where he is will contact us."

Snoad is described as white, around 5ft 9in tall and of slim build. He had a short, cropped beard and a greasy ponytail. He has a surgical scar on his left arm and another on his right wrist.

Anyone with information on his whereabouts is urged to contact Essex Police on 0300 333 4444.

College collects seal of approval

A SUFFOLK college has become the first in the country to receive official approval for its apprenticeship schemes.

West Suffolk College, in Bury St Edmunds, has gained approval from the Institution of Mechanical Engineers (IMechE) for its apprenticeships.

Gary Clarke, head of faculty of arts and technology, accepted the certificate of approval from Lara Mallett, IMechE regional manager for the Eastern and East Midlands regions, at an employers evening for automotive and engineering trades.

Hunt for four graffiti youths

A GROUP of around four male youths sprayed graffiti onto sheds at an allotment in Haverhill.

A lock was also forced on a shed and bean wire cut.

The damage was caused at Duddery Hill between 6.15pm and 6.30pm on Wednesday, May 21.

The youths were described as around 14 years old, wearing dark clothing, one was black and the others white.

Anyone with information can call Pc Terri Thomas-Hay at Haverhill Police on (01284) 774100 or Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.

Fabulous fortnight of festival frivolity!

By Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

A stirring display of military music will kick-off this year's Haverhill Festival on Friday, June 13, with a mix of comedy, music, theatre, community events, street theatre and activities for all the family set to follow.

The popular two-week event, presented by Haverhill Town Council, starts with a demonstration of military music with The Minden Band and will round off with the traditional Last Night of the Festival Proms on Sunday, June 29, with the Haverhill Silver Band and Haverhill Operatic Society.

Highlights of the fortnight's programme will include a street festival. Headlining on the day of fun and mayhem on the streets of Haverhill will be a specially-commissioned piece of theatre, The Station, by the acclaimed Bash Street Theatre company. Be prepared for a dramatic train crash, a dare-devil rescue and some great comedy action in this hour-long silent show.

The street festival also includes ever-enthusiastic footballer on stilts, Willy Wreckham, and irritatingly-accurate referee Bernard Bookham, plus an enormous, animatronic smoke-breathing dragon and his goblin queen. Bee Gees Magic, a fabulously authentic concert celebrating the music of Robin, Barry and Maurice will get audiences at Haverhill Arts Centre jumping to all the most iconic 70s tunes, from Jive Talking to Stayin' Alive.

And they're not the only ones set to delight arts centre visitors.

The Tashi Lhunpo Tibetan Monks, whose clashing cymbals, colourful costumes and ancient rituals provide a breathtaking insight into the ancient traditions of the Tibetan Monks.

Martin Taylor and Alison Burns, who have been described respectively as the best acoustic guitarist of his generation and the fastest-rising jazz singer in the UK. Sixties chart toppers, Herman's Hermits, are all suited and booted to perform all the golden oldies and another 60s star, Andy Fairweather-Low, from Amen Corner, will bring back memories of classics such as Bend Me, Shape Me, as well as material from his new album.

The two faces of Holly the Computer, from the cult TV comedy Red Dwarf, Norman Lovett and Hattie Hayridge, will also be appearing with their own brand of stand-up.

Haverhill Keyboard Club college band, Nice Manors, from Castle Manor Business and Enterprise College, will also be there, teaming up with professional keyboard player Chris Stanbury for a concert.

Classical music fans will have the chance to attend two events. Haverhill Choral Society will be delighting audiences with Music for a Summer's Evening, taken from Vaughn Williams' opera, Sir John in Love, and Arnold Sinfonia will be holding an orchestral concert with special guest, Tamas Balla on the oboe.

The fun continues away from the arts centre, with Haverhill and District Local History group set to lead two walks around the town to give a fascinating insight into Haverhill's past.

There are also nature events in East Town and West Town parks, a chance to get out the picnic blanket when Cambridge Touring Theatre bring an outdoor performance of The Sword in the Stone to East Town Park, a screening of Ruby Blue, the Bob Hoskins film that has enjoyed great critical success, followed by a question and answer session with the writer and director Jan Dunn, a street market to help local organisations raise funds, a ceilidh and a charity gig with local bands in support of St Nicholas Hospice. Full details of events are in the Festival programme, available from the arts centre or call (01440) 714140 to book tickets.

Kedington

SIXTEEN gardens will open in Kedington from noon on Sunday as part of this year's Open Gardens event. Most will stay open until 6pm. The one exception is the newest garden at Kedington Primary School. The school garden features vegetables as a special interest and the garden hosts will be pupils from the school, assisted by their teacher. The school garden will close at 4pm, in good time for visitors to make their way to Limeridge House Dash End for a delicious cream tea, or if they need something stronger, to Orchard House opposite the Rectory where a licence will be in force until 6pm. Both of these houses are well known for their excellent but different gardens. Elsewhere in the village will be the gardens of thatched cottages, a converted barn, old and more recent houses, a former bakery and antiques shop, Ketton House, with 12 acres surrounding a Queen Anne house, plus an ancient Mulberry tree, and some gardens opening for the first time. Admission is by programme, costing £3, available in advance from Kedington post office, the village store or from the church on the day. Proceeds are in aid of the Parish Church Restoration Fund.

■ Diary - Monday, June 2: RBL Bingo, Legion Hall, 8pm; Tuesday, June 3: monthly meeting of the Garden Society, Legion Hall, 7.30pm, with speaker Colette Barrere talking on Bressingham Gardens; Thursday, June 5: Noah's House Café, 2.30-4.30pm; Saturday, June 7: quiz night at the community centre, 7pm for 7.30pm, teams of up to six, £2.50 per person; Sunday, June 8: village treasure hunt, community centre, 3pm, for details

■ The annual general meeting of the parish council was held at the library last Tuesday with chairman Cllr Terry Wheeler welcoming those present, including borough councillor Marion Rushbrook, Shaun Jarvis, of the Wildlife Group, and a police officer from the Safe Neighbourhood team.

The first item on the agenda was to elect a new chairman, as Cllr Wheeler had given notice that he would stand down. In a secret ballot, Cllr John Cahill was promoted to the chair, with Cllr Wheeler taking over the role as vice-chairman, followed by the appointment of councillors' responsibilities for the coming year. In its report, the Safe Neighbourhood team reported that crime in the village during the year had dropped from 76 recorded incidents to 35. A warning was given to look out for strange vans around the village following the increasing number of thefts from roofs and bins. Police are trying to spend more time in larger villages, such as Kedington, and would welcome residents' reports of any suspicious activities. Car parking for the school was still causing problems on Church Hill, Silver Street and outside the Legion Hall when youth groups are departing, aggravated by contact Kathy on (01440) 713692, cream teas at the centre from 3-5.30pm.

■ Discussions were still ongoing with the borough council in about the proposed housing development behind the Limes, Mill Road. In her report, parish clerk Marion Farrant reported that no reply had been received from the borough council about the sign at the end of West End Lane, which had the arrow point missing. The council has promised to carry out an inspection of erosion of the high bank outside the parish church wall.

The village handyman has reported an improvement in control of molehills in the cemetery and he will be spending an hour each week flattening and raking them down. At the monthly meeting of the finance committee, chaired by Cllr John Cahill, the financial statement was reported as satisfactory. The accountant had completed the VAT returns and the clerk will write to Revenue and Customs to claim £100 that is offered for completing the returns on time.

A £500 cheque has been received from county councillor The Reverend Karen Knight from her Locality Fund towards start-up costs for the new parish council office. The chairman read an email from Cllr John Pelling about plants that had been donated by Freda White for planting in the Baulk, and a further email stating that Sarah Green was also offering plants free of charge. It was proposed to ask the Garden Society if it would plant them.

On behalf of the Wildlife Group, Shaun Jarvis reported on the destruction of nest boxes on the Risbridge Meadow. Also reported was the fact that negotiations were still ongoing regarding closing of village doctors' surgery.

Josie to lead them to the meadow

A MUSICAL pupil from Parkway Middle School will lead the parade as Miss Meadowlark for the annual event in Kedington on Saturday, June 14. Josie Bush, 12, of Westward Deals, Kedington, plays both the double base and the cello, as well as being a keen Scout member who also helps out with the younger Beavers. Her attendants will be 10-year-olds Natasha Beasley and Hanna Watts, who also both live in Westward Deals.

Natasha is following in the footsteps of her sister Kelly, a previous Miss Meadowlark, and enjoys art and gardening. Hanna is also musical, playing the violin and piano, as well as being a keen member of the Cubs.

This year is the 40th anniversary of the village's Meadowlark, organised by Kedington Community Association, with a parade of floats followed by events on the Great Meadow. This year's theme will be 'Ruby Red'.

Man accused of armed robberies

A JOBLESS man suspected of being the armed robber dubbed "The Bookie Bagger" has appeared at Crown Court.

Nicholas Smith, 58, is accused of committing armed robberies in Haverhill and elsewhere but has denied a string of offences.

Smith, of Tempsford Avenue in Borehamwood, Hertfordshire, was arrested after a dawn raid at his home in January. He pleaded not guilty to 44 charges related to robbery and possession of firearms when he appeared at Harrow Crown Court on Wednesday.

The charges relate to more

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

than 20 raids on bookmakers' shops - including three in Haverhill and one in Cambridge - over a two-year period, which netted a total of around £30,000.

Smith, who made no application for bail, was remanded in custody, and his case is set for trial at Harrow Crown Court in September 2.

The charges he faces include armed robbery at Ladbroke's in Haverhill on New Year's Day last year.

Police believed the culprit could be an unhappy punter, who used a number of disguises during the raids and plundered £5,000 in one Ladbroke's raid.

The gunman, who was caught on a CCTV camera, terrified cashiers at Haverhill's Camps Road branch in a robbery last June when he walked in wearing a coat with the hood up, sunglasses and a scarf around the lower part of his face. He walked off with hundreds of pounds after threatening staff with a gun.

It was a carbon copy of a raid at the same shop in February and a New Year's Day hit on the Ladbroke's branch in Jubilee Walk in the town. There the man forced employees to hand over cash at gunpoint before pushing them into a toilet.

Man moves to grab girl, 9, out on walk

A NINE-YEAR-OLD girl was nearly grabbed by a man as she walked along a road in Haverhill.

The girl was nearing Western Avenue between 6pm and 6.30pm last Thursday and was followed by a man in a small white car as she walked along Beech Grove.

As she approached Western Avenue she saw the man walking towards her with an arm outstretched and ran off.

Shortly afterwards she was walking back in the opposite direction and the man followed her again on foot, and she ran down an alleyway.

The man is described as of Asian appearance, middle aged, of medium build with mousey hair and blue eyes. He was wearing skinny jeans, a t-shirt and a striped cardigan.

Calls in relation to this incident should be made to Pc Sarah Reavill at Haverhill Police on (01284) 774100 or Crimestoppers, anonymously, on 0800 555 111.

Big drop raises world trip cash

STUDENTS from Haverhill have been testing their head for heights to raise money for a trip of a lifetime to Mexico.

Kat Nutman, 18, and her brother Chris, 17, went to Buxton in the Peak District to abseil off a bridge to help pay for their World Challenge trip in July.

They are part of a group of seven teenagers from Samuel Ward Arts and Technology College, in Haverhill, set to go on the trip, which includes a trek along the Maya Way through Mexico, Belize, Guatemala and Honduras.

They will also help with environmental projects aimed at assisting poorer local communities. The abseil was the latest in a long line of fundraising events that Kat and Chris have taken part in to ensure they each raise the £3,395 needed to join the expedition. Kat said: "It was a great success. The bridge is about 30 metres tall and terrifying when at the top. Between the two of us we managed to raise around £800 and would very much like to thank those who sponsored us." Haverhill pupils also recently took part in a training weekend for their trip where they climbed hills in the Peak District and met their counterpart team from St Thomas Aquinas School in Birmingham.

'Keeping helpers happy is the key'

LOOKING after existing volunteers and recruiting some new ones will be the aim of Volunteers' Week activities planned for Haverhill.

A Volunteering England poll released to mark Volunteers' Week, which runs from this Sunday to Saturday, June 7, suggests keeping volunteers happy is more important than recruiting new ones.

An overwhelming 86 per cent of those polled believed that building relationships with existing volunteers was crucial.

Volunteers' Week is an annual event to celebrate the contribution 20 million volunteers in the country make to their communities.

Events will be held around the country during the week with the theme of "recognise, reward and recruit", and many organisations and local groups will be hoping to attract enthusiastic new workers to their cause, as well as publicly acknowledging those who have supported them for some time.

Haverhill Volunteer Centre will hold a coffee morning at the Sunflower Café, next to the library, next Thursday between 10am and noon, with a chance to meet the centre's staff, volunteers and service users.

Manager Elaine Hewes said: "Please come along and have an informal chat and find out what is involved in volunteering."

"We will have leaflets from a variety of organisations and our latest newsletter available."

"We work with many volunteers who enjoy their volunteering, they gain skills, meet new people and often their volunteering leads to employment."

Officers in drugs swoop

DRUGS were seized in two raids on properties in Haverhill this week.

Five people were arrested at one address, and a man cautioned at another.

The first search warrant was executed at a property in Shepherds Court on Tuesday, where a quantity of white powder and herbal substance was seized.

Five people were arrested on suspicion of possession of a Class A drug with intent to supply, and all five have been released on police bail to return to Bury St Edmunds police station on August 20.

They were a 22-year-old man and a 20-year-old man from London, and a 23-year-old man and two 17-year-old youths from Haverhill.

At the second property in Hundon Place, Haverhill, on Wednesday morning, drug paraphernalia was seized, and a 25-year-old man from Haverhill was cautioned for possession of heroin.

Hospital parking charges net £250,000 in a month

ADDENBROOKE'S Hospital made nearly £250,000 from parking charges in one month after increasing fees for patients, visitors and staff by up to 36 per cent.

The NHS hospital in Cambridge raked in £248,323 from parking fees in April, the first month in which increases applied.

One outraged councillor described the figures, obtained by our sister paper, the Cambridge Evening News under the Freedom of Information Act, as being "against the whole ethos of the NHS".

If parking income continues at the same level for the rest of the 2008/09 financial year, Addenbrooke's will make £2.98 million out of it.

The foundation trust already makes more money from parking charges than any other hospital in the UK, bringing in £2.56 million in 2007/08.

Alongside the new charges, April saw the opening of the hospital's new £11.5 million multi-storey car park, operated under a contract between Addenbrooke's and

BY John Morgan
Email: editor@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

private company NCP.

Addenbrooke's insists all money raised by parking charges is reinvested in providing safe car parks and without charges, funding for patients and staff would be diverted to parking.

But Cllr Geoff Heathcock, Liberal Democrat spokesman for health on Cambridgeshire County Council, said: "In many cases, staff and patients have no alternative but to bring a vehicle. And they are being absolutely fleeced."

"It goes against the whole ethos of the NHS. The hospital is there to provide a service."

As a foundation trust, Addenbrooke's owns its assets independently of the Government and can enter into external contracts with private companies.

Cllr Heathcock said: "It is an independent hospital, so they have free rein to do what they like. Nobody, but nobody, is in a position to go to a Government minister and complain."

Outpatients at Adden-

■ ANGRY ... Cllr Geoff Heathcock says staff and patients are being fleeced.

brooke's now pay £3 for one day, visitors pay £15 to park for more than eight hours and staff pay £2 a day.

Of April's income, £159,344 came from patients and visitors, while £88,979 came from staff.

Michael Summers, vice-chairman of the Patients' Association, said: "It really is disgraceful that hospitals feel they can make money out of patients, their families and staff."

"They pay private companies vast fees instead of organising it in a way that savings could be made."

An Addenbrooke's spokesman said: "The income generated from car parking charges allows us to provide a high-quality parking service on site for people who really need it."

"All the car parks on site are self-funding, which means that no money intended for patient care is spent on parking."

The spokesman added that the hospital has a long-term travel plan encouraging the use of alternative means of transport.

The News asked Addenbrooke's to reveal the value of its contract with NCP. But the hospital refused to release the information, saying it could "damage good commercial relations with the private company" and "affect the private company's commercial interests".

Rogue traders beware

HUNDREDS of people were given spot checks in one day as police in Cambridgeshire launched a crackdown on rogue traders.

Police and partner agencies took to the streets of the county in a bid to tackle tricksters who prey on the vulnerable.

They stop-checked about 400 people last Wednesday, accompanied by officers from trading standards, councils, the Environment Agency and HM Revenue and Customs.

The move was launched to target known "hot-spots" for the crime as part of a national day of action.

Cambridge, Ely, Sawston, St Neots, St Ives, Huntingdon, Ely, Wisbech and Peterborough were covered by Operation Rogue Trader.

There have been 19 rogue trading incidents in the county so far this year, involving the loss of £50,000.

No arrests were made during the crackdown but trading standards offences were uncovered, property seized and intelligence gathered.

Park helpers create new path

A GROUP of volunteers from Genzyme spent a Sunday morning creating a new woodland path through Puddlebrook in Haverhill. Staff from the giant bio-tech company worked with rangers from East Town Park and were helped by a few younger volunteers who gave up their Sunday morning to improve the appearance of the well-used park.

'Opportunities are all around'

OLDER people in Haverhill are being encouraged to try something different.

Suffolk Partnership with Older People (POP) is working with libraries, museums, Age Concern, local councils and other organisations to promote a programme of activities for its Year of Opportunity scheme.

Cllr Graham Newman, portfolio holder for Suffolk County Council's adult and community services, launched the scheme at the Suffolk Show yesterday.

He said: "The Year of Opportunity serves to remind us of all the effort that people around the county are putting into events and activities of all kinds.

"We want to make sure that people don't miss out on all these opportunities just because they don't know what's going on in their local library or village hall."

BY Jo Deeks

Cllr Newman added: "These days we can look forward to around 20 years of retirement and getting out there and getting involved seems to be the key to a good quality of life in our later years.

"I can't emphasise enough how lucky we are in Suffolk. There's no reason for the skills and energy of older people to be wasted. Theatre, photography, walks, crafts and exhibitions - there is such a range of activities to choose from, or simply join a group where you decide exactly what you want to do."

Brave pair take on blaze at Iraqi base

TWO Suffolk firefighters used their skills to put out a blaze caused by a huge mortar attack while serving with the RAF in Iraq.

Leading firefighters Trevor Jaeger, from Haverhill Fire Station, and Peter Nicholson, from Saxmundham, were taking part in an RAF exercise, and although firefighting is not their main job, the two off-duty firefighters swung into action when a base in Basra came under heavy rocket attack.

In the first wave of the attack, around 15 122mm rockets hit the camp, with one landing just 30 feet from the pair.

The rocket had struck a shipping container, blowing the doors off and it was well alight when the pair sprang into action, grabbing fire fighting equipment from a snack bay.

They had run out of extinguishers when they were given a garden hose by one of the locals, as this was the only source of water, and quickly brought the blaze under control.

They continued until firefighters from the base arrived on the scene.

The two men are on call-up duty with 2 Squadron RAF Regiment.

Mr Jaeger, a father of three, has served at Haverhill Fire Station for the past 10 years and is due to return home shortly from a three-month trip, then return to Iraq.

■ Interested in amateur dramatics? Then you'll be pleased to hear the 2008 Haverhill Drama Festival runs from June 4 to June 7 with shows at 7.30pm. David Vince, of the Guild of Drama Adjudicators (GODA) will judge one act plays by drama societies from across the region.

Mute mayoress stole show at Mikado

Review: The Farnsdale Avenue Housing Estate Townswomen's Guild Operatic Society's Production of The Mikado
By Jo Deeks

together as Nanki-Poo, with her usual stage presence and charm and Lauren Chinnery was excellent as Ko-Ko. The chorus proved to be the true stars – with town mayoress Jean Ager as we have never seen her before, stealing the show with her zimmer frame and walking stick. Most never spoke, but their expressions told all. Pam Lawrence stood out as the harassed guild chairman Mrs Reece, trying to play Pooh-Bah and vainly to make things run smoothly. Debbi Walters ruled the stage in booming voice and terrific tantrums as Yum-Yum. Just when the audience thought it had laughed itself hoarse, Sue Almond arrived as the forgetful Scottish Mikado who was supposed to make all the pieces of the plot fit together. She had even more trouble separating drama from reality than the rest of us. Two brave men joined the cast, with Phil Wise resplendent in pigtales as he stepped in to save the day as one of the Three Little Maids from School, and Mark Hickford as the hapless producer trying to control his cast. Audience participation was great and the origami lesson was inspired.

The clever use of neon signs in the darkness was one of many little touches that set this group apart. It has been suggested that Gilbert and Sullivan would be spinning in their graves at this show, but I think it more likely they would be shaking with laughter.

Sunny start
for gallery

A NEW gallery in Haverhill is presenting a summer exhibition.

The First Floor Gallery in Lower Downs Slade is showcasing the work of Suffolk portrait and landscape artist John Glover. Born in Scotland, the former book illustrator has focused on portraiture since 1980 with subjects from all walks of life, from grand official portraits, to smaller, more intimate studies. The show, which began on Saturday, also features guest artists Jonathan Newey, who specialises in acrylic paintings of wildlife and old neglected buildings; wildlife and coastal landscape specialist, Heather Jolliffe; and Suffolk-based Jon Adkin, who began his career as a topical cartoonist and illustrator.

This is the gallery's first feature show.

The gallery is open on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday afternoons from 1pm to 5pm and Saturdays from 9am to 5pm.

Triumphant revival for Sixties group

By Nik Shelton

IT TOOK UK audiences a while to finally recognise the talents of The Zombies – and now that we have, they're having the time of their lives.

The band, led by keyboard player Rod Argent and singer Colin Blunstone, started out from St Albans in the 1960s but it was only across the Atlantic that tracks like She's Not There, Tell Her No and Time of the Season were setting the US billboard charts on fire.

The band split before the release of their final album Odessey and Oracle in 1968 and it passed by with little notice in their home country. But then something strange happened.

Rod said: "Odessey and Oracle didn't sell when it first came out. But then 15 years later it started to sell and gradually gained momentum which has gone on and on until today."

"I'd almost forgotten what it sounded like because

■ TIME OF THEIR LIVES... The Zombies are in Cambridge on Saturday.

I'm not one who goes and plays my old stuff very much and it wasn't until there was a compilation put together by someone who went back and found all the original first generation masters that I actually listened closely to it for the first time. I thought, 'This is better than I thought'."

The album soon began to be hailed as a lost classic and with the long-awaited revival of interest in the group, Rod and Colin joined forces once again in 2000 to take the music back on the road.

Since then they have become progressively busier and their hard work paid off in March this year when they reformed the original line-up and played three nights at the Shepherd's Bush Empire to mark the 40th anniversary of Odessey and Oracle. "It was brilliant," said Rod. "We had three sold-out nights and there were some very cool people who came to see us. Paul Weller had tickets for all three nights. Robert Plant was there, Garbage, Snow Patrol, Tim Rice. It does feel fantastic to be accepted by all generations. "We didn't know if it was going to work until we stepped on stage – we haven't played with Chris (White, bassist) and Hugh (Grundy, drummer) for 40 years. "Really the first time we knew for sure it was going to work was half way through the first number." The Zombies and The Yardbirds play the Corn Exchange on Saturday June 7. Tickets are £19.50-£24.50. To book call (01223) 357851.

New measures may fail to have impact

THE Government's proposals to cut the speed limit of urban streets to 20mph are a step in the right direction – but still won't stop the majority of drivers who break road laws.

That's the reaction of Andrew McGavin, the founder of Better Driving Please.com, a website set up for anyone to report bad driving they see on roads.

BetterDrivingPlease has received 12,500 reports so far. Andrew says new laws such as this are good only if they are capable of being actively policed.

He said: "There is an underclass of motorists who genuinely don't fear being caught breaking traffic laws.

"They know there aren't enough traffic police to catch them speeding, driving dangerously or using a handheld mobile. They're prepared to risk driving without insurance. And they don't fear cameras because they can swap or alter their number plates.

"Setting a new limit of 20mph will only slow down law-abiding drivers. The real answer is to quadruple efforts to catch and prosecute the persistent offenders, such as some of those reported to Better Driving Please.com."

Andrew has evidence of what little effect the introduction of new road laws has had.

Fifteen months ago the law for using a handheld mobile phone changed (February 27, 2007), increasing the penalty for being caught to £60 and three points.

Yet since then reports of drivers flouting the law received by Better Driving Please.com have increased, and currently stand at 2,700.

Andrew added: "The Government needs to look at what is actually happening on our roads and revamp their overall enforcement policy, rather than introduce new laws which will just be ignored.

"The law is becoming law for the law-abiding, to be ignored by the 'motoring underclass'."

■ PATIENCE PLEASE... impatience and using a mobile can lead to danger.

MOTURING

Learners to face new questions

LEARNER drivers are to face a revised set of safety questions at the start of their practical driving test.

From July 1, candidates will have to answer updated questions that more accurately reflect the need for learners to have the skills and knowledge to be safe on the road.

The new questions will cover the use of wipers, demisters, brake lights, fog lights, head restraints, automated braking systems, warning lights and the correct operation of relevant controls and switches.

Chief driving examiner Trevor Wedge said: "The extra questions reflect the need to be able to show a basic knowledge about the various safety checks a driver should make before driving a vehicle."

The full list of questions and combinations can be downloaded from www.dsa.gov.uk

There are nine pages of description about us and about the job which will be sent to you if you ask.

YOUTH FOOTBALL

■ SILVER LADIES ... Members of Haverhill Rovers Girls teams are pictured with the awards they picked up at their presentation night on Saturday. The club are currently looking for players for the coming season. At the moment, Rovers have U10, U13 and U14 levels. Any girls in the Haverhill area wishing to join are asked to call Steve Hull on 07759016470.

Wratting sign off with style

West Wratting U10 Reds 5
Burwell Tigers U10 2

FRIENDLY

WRATTING finished the season with good victory over a very strong Burwell team, who had won their respective league.

The 11-a-side game saw both teams take time to settle in the blustery conditions.

Good play between Kidd and Boyles released Bailey to slot past the Burwell keeper.

The visitors quickly claimed an equaliser, but Bailey soon regained Wratting's lead.

Burwell showed the character and equalised with a fine free kick from just outside the penalty area shortly before the interval.

The half-time team talk seemed to have some effect on Wratting, who started well and regained the lead through Carter.

The home team were now in full control and doubled their lead when Boyles fired home.

Burwell persisted and, but for a great headed clearance off the line by Jenkinson, they would have been back in the match.

Jay Jay Osuchukwu then produced a moment of individual brilliance, dancing around five players before calmly beating the oncoming Burwell goalkeeper.

There was still time for Street to have a seemingly good goal chalked off when the linesman ruled the ball had not crossed the line.

Wratting squad: James Cutting, Ollie Kiddy, Rhys Shulver, Sam Street, Sean Elsom, Paul Jenkinson, Stephen Boyles, Cameron Kidd, Ben Eames, Alex Carter, Joshua Osuchukwu, William Bailey

West Wratting U11 6
Halstead Town U11 1

FRIENDLY

THE finale to the 2007-8 season for Wratting was an outstanding performance against Halstead in the heaviest downpour of the season.

Fortunately, the Linton Astro pitch delivered a surface to match the quality of Wratting's football.

Within 10 minutes, Cooper had made a piercing run from the right and buried the ball into the bottom right hand corner to open the Wratting scoring. Lambert soon fired in a second, quickly followed by a fine strike from Bush.

The second half delivered the same quality from Wratting with Scotton grabbing the fourth from distance.

Lambert then followed up to score after Millar's penalty was saved by the Halstead keeper, who had made several fine blocks and saves.

Bush, who grabbed his second, before Halstead pulled one back.

This match capped a fine season in style for Wratting and as well as the efforts of the goalscorers, there were outstanding performances from Sheath, Gedny, Ager, Elliott, Stevenson, Massie, Millar, Torode.

Haverhill go down in thriller

HAVERHILL suffered a 40-run defeat in the clash of the only two unbeaten Marshall Hatchick Two Counties Championship, Division Two sides at Exning on Saturday.

Batting first Exning were on 12 for 2 when a confident appeal went up from Haverhill for a catch behind against Matt Catley, who was on nought.

But, Catley survived and then went on to make 65 as he linked up with David Monk (63) in an Exning total of 217 all out.

Scott Webb led the Haverhill wicket-takers with 4 for 37, while captain Rob Sullivan picked up three scalps.

Webb (67) and Simon Youngs got Haverhill into a strong position with a partnership of 106, but, once they had gone, the innings collapsed to 177 all out.

Exning's Dave Atkinson and Ian Starling took three wickets apiece, but Daniel Baigent topped the charts with 4 for 42.

■ WESTON COLVILLE lost at the death of a high-scoring Tucker Gardner Cambs and Hunts Premier League, Division Two encounter when they entertained Eaton Socon on Saturday.

The home side declared early on 301 for 7 to give themselves an extra over to bowl out the visitors, for whom Dominic Marchant took 5 for 80.

A string of dropped catches let Socon off the hook and Jonny Carpenter (78), Dave Humphrey (77) and Paul Field (60) helped them reach 306 for 7 with three wickets and just one ball to spare.

■ HORSEHEATH lost by five wickets when they entertained Fulbourn in Division One of the Cheffins CCA Senior League on Saturday.

Tight bowling from Fulbourn saw the hosts restricted to 90 for 2 after 30 overs before Martin Giles (71) and Dan Goldsmith (31) got things moving again to leave Horseheath on 220 for 8. Of the Fulbourn bowlers, Jono Hartley took 4 for 42 and Ian Still 3 for 35.

But 17-year-old James Mynott (83) then took the game away from Horseheath with some powerful batting as enjoyed a fourth-wicket stand of 110 with skipper Mark Hodgson (45) as Fulbourn made 221 for 5.

Horseheath captain Gary Ellis said: "Mynott was amazing. He can't be very old, but it will be unbelievable if he's playing cricket in this league next year."

His opposite number Hodgson said: "It was an excellent result and James was in control for most of our innings."
